

Gloria, Bonnie, Mary and Kathy spoke at this national conference of alternative school people. Many people came to hear about a public parent-run school like Ironbound because there aren't many schools like it. These pictures show the workshop and talking with people after.

3A ORGANIZING A PARENT RUN PUBLIC SCHOOL--Ironbound School N. J. Ironbound staff and parents will -xplain how they set up an alternative school and then had the public school system fund it while the parents maintained local control.

Saturday,

2:30 P.M.

Schools are built upon relationships between teachers, students and parents. The more everyone involved in a school works together, the more students are able to learn.
